Comments

One resident, Christine Williams, asked if it would be possible to put up signs about autistic children living within the neighborhood for the children's safety. Mr. Heath asked Ms. Warren if they would be able to put the sign in the right-of-way, to which she responded that she was almost sure that they could, as long as they weren't violating any sign compliances.

Mr. Heath also suggested that they get the HOA to pay for the sign and that the CDD install it. Supervisor Lopez offered to pay for the Autistic Children signs of his own accord, using his own personal funds. The Board agreed that Supervisor Lopez could pay for the Autistic Children signs personally, due to his offer to do so.
